NOTES

There are places that take hold of you and won't let go. They possess a certain charm, like an old friend who calls and it's like nothing ever changed. The first time I stepped foot in Chelle Mountain Vineyard, on top of York Mountain, I knew it was a special place. A place with spirit. Where the stubborn old vines aren't generous but produce fruit with a bold personality. Where for years, I've dug in, gotten my hands dirty, and brought forth some of the best wine I've ever tried – Chelle Cabernet Sauvignon. This is its story.

TASTING NOTES

This old apple farmer isn't Catholic, but you better believe attends St. Peter's pancake breakfast every Saturday. He cracks jokes with the priests, stacks his flapjacks high with brown sugar and blackberries, and leaves a stewed tomato and pepper casserole in the office. Then shuffles out on a cane made from an old bull's pride and joy. You can ask him about the steamboat he built himself, then promptly sunk. You can ask him about the barn fire he put out last week. Just don't ask him for a confession.

ABOUT

Proprietor and winemaker Russell P. From began Herman Story Wines in 2001 with 7 barrels stashed in his employer's cellar. What started as a modest homage to his rancher grandfather has become a beacon to those seeking opulent, structured Syrah and Grenache. To maintain balance while giving flavor full stage, Russell works with 30 top-tier vineyards in over 7 distinct growing regions between Santa Barbara and Paso Robles. These are no nonsense, balls to the walls wines that are not for the faint of heart or the pinky raising set.
