TASTING NOTES

The whitewater rafting instructor might not know your name, but you're about to change all that on this class V rager. She's helming the front of the raft like an old pro, maneuvering deftly between lemon butter currents and ripping mandarin orange rapids. In and out of daffodil and baking spice eddies. Cartwheeling slate and mineral outcroppings. Gold Rush apple gradients, mango mai tai tail waves, and the sudden electric boldness to give her your number—if only you weren't underwater.

NOTES

Tomboy is the white wine for the red wine drinker, and the only white wine at Herman Story. Focused on texture and explosive aromatics, it is a Rhône white for those have tired of stainless and concrete. It is not sweet, and not for whimps.

SERVING

Temperature: 60° F

ABOUT

Proprietor and winemaker Russell P. From began Herman Story Wines in 2001 with 7 barrels stashed in his employer's cellar. What started as a modest homage to his rancher grandfather has become a beacon to those seeking opulent, structured Syrah and Grenache. To maintain balance while giving flavor full stage, Russell works with 30 top-tier vineyards in over 7 distinct growing regions between Santa Barbara and Paso Robles. These are no nonsense, balls to the walls wines that are not for the faint of heart or the pinky raising set.
